

Cable Tray

Multipurpose solutions

A simple and cost effective support for communication power cable distribution. Slots running down the length trays enable easy installation of cable ties.

Various connecting methods including joggled ends or traditional splicing are available, saving you installation time and cost

Advantages

An extensive range of dedicated accessories, bracketery and support systems.

Timesaving joggled options available.

All material is compliant to European standards

Compliant to standard of BS EN 61537 : 2007

Unistrut Cable Tray

Traditional Unistrut standard design, synonymous with strength and quality.

Available in 3m lengths with duties of light (12mm or 18mm height), medium (25mm height) and heavy (50mm height).

Widths range from 50mm to 900mm available in [PG]Pre-galvanised, [HG] hot-dip galvanised and [SS] stainless steel finishes.

Optional self splicing 'joggled' ends.